

LIFE GROUP HOMEWORK:

QUICK REVIEW

1. Based on Pastor Nat's message on reasons for God's existence, what questions or concerns were raised for you?

2. How did Pastor Nat's message prepare you to defend your faith?

MY STORY

1. What was the last thing that you created with your own hands? Were you satisfied with how it turned out? Why or why not?

2. Name something you take by faith in your everyday life? What areas of your life do you need explanations and reasons to believe that something is viable or legit?

DIGGING DEEPER

Through listening to Pastor Nat's message, you should have a better confidence in understanding God's existence. In the homework this week, we'd like to go one step further by helping you understand who God is by studying God's characteristics and attributes.

1. What challenges do we face in trying to describe God? Read Psalm 145:3.

2. The following passages discuss the unique attributes of God. Read the passages and note the attribute.
  - Psalm 90:2; Psalm 102:24-27; Acts 17:24-25
  - Isaiah 42:10; Malachi 3:6
  - Genesis 21:33; Deuteronomy 33:27
  - Psalm 139:7-12; Jeremiah 23:23-24
  - Deuteronomy 6:4; Exodus 34:6-7
  - Isaiah 46:10

3. In addition to the unique attributes of God that are listed in question two, what are some other attributes of God? Create a list and note a reference from the Bible if possible.

4. Lastly, why is it important to know who God is? How does knowing God (the sum total of all his attributes) change my daily life in regard to decision-making, devotion, and commitment?
