Discussion Questions

1 Are you more prone to making the Bible a textbook to be studied, a rulebook to be followed, or the fix for your and societies' problems? How have you perhaps made the truth of the gospel and God's Word more about you or your influence on others than about Him?

2 Where might God be at work in you? What areas of your own life might God be working to transform through the power of His gospel? What would it look like for you to listen to and allow for the application of His gospel-truth in those areas?

3 Where might God be at work around you? What would it look like for you to be faithful to listen for, speak, and/or apply His gospel-truth to those situations?
