

Discussion Questions

1

In Advent Past: Jesus came to us.

Author Steve Cuss points out that “Jesus does not call us to mimic him but to manifest him. The difference between trying to be like Jesus and simply following Jesus is life changing.”

How is Jesus more than an example to follow? What area of life might you currently be trying to live in your own power rather than in surrender and submission to Jesus?

2

In Advent Present: Jesus is alongside us.

Read Galatians 2:20.

How does our relationship with Jesus free us to live and relate to God without shame? Where might you need to let go of shame as you relate to God your Father through Jesus Christ our Advocate?

3

In Advent Future: Jesus restores us.

Read John 10:10.

How has Jesus changed your life in the here and now? Consider one person this Christmas season who might like to hear how your relationship with Jesus has changed your life?
