

Discussion Questions

1 We have been on a journey together as a church family to consider what it looks like to linger in the presence of God and to listen for His voice. When you consider the prospect of hearing from God what do you hope He might say? What do you fear He might say?

2 Read 1 John 4:18. How could an understanding of God's perfect love inform the practice of listening for Him and listening to Him in your own life?

3 What could it look like for you to further explore the perfect love of God this week? What tangible ideas come to mind?
