Meet Jesus | The Beloved, Rejected Son, Luke 20:1-18

Brian Abbott

Reflection Questions

1 Read and consider this quote from author, Brett McCracken: “What we think we want from a church is almost never what we need. However challenging it may be to embrace, God’s idea of church is far more glorious than any dream church we could conjure. It’s not about finding a church that fits my theological, architectural, or political preferences. It’s about becoming like living stones that are being built up as a spiritual house focused on and held together by Jesus, the stone the builders rejected who became the cornerstone (1 Pet. 2:4-7).”

How does this mentality rub up against our own culture today?

2 When you consider Jesus and His truth claims, what is the hardest teaching for you to understand or accept personally? Why is that?

3 What would it look like for you to move toward Jesus with these doubts or questions? What would it look like for you to actively pursue answers or peace of mind concerning these things?
