Meet Jesus | Meet Jesus, Know Jesus, Luke 24

Danny Lamonte

Reflection Questions

1

If you could know anything without a shadow of a doubt, what would you want to know for certain? Why do you think some things—many things—are not for us to know in this life?

2

Luke 1:4 tells us that the purpose of the book of Luke is “that you may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught.” How has our journey through the book of Luke made you more certain about any of the following?

- a. Christ’s Character and Call
- b. Christ’s Peace and Proximity
- c. Christ’s Community and Compassion

3

The Christian life is an invitation by Christ to partake in a messy, ongoing process where we are continually being transformed by the perfect work of Christ. What might the next chapter of discipleship look like for you as you continue learning to live as a follower of Christ resembling the lifestyle of Christ?
