

Sunday Message: August 15, 2021
Real People, Real Church, Real Grace
Welcome to Corinth | 1 Corinthians 1:1-3
Danny Lamonte

Reflection Questions

1 Be honest... how often does the Bible feel applicable to your daily life and reality? Does it ever feel like there's a disconnect? If so, why do you think that is?

2 We learned on Sunday that Christians in the early church at Corinth were a messy people in process just like us. They were the same kind of people, in the same kind of church, with the same kind of sin struggles. As we saw in 1 Corinthians 1:1-3, they also needed the same kind of reminders concerning their true, grace-filled identity in Christ. How does this affect your perspective of God's Word, the Church, and the Christian life?

3 What would it look like for you to read the Bible this week, not as a rulebook, but as the very life-giving, grace-filled breath of God?