Reflection Questions

Read 1 Corinthians 2:1-7. Then reread verse 2.

In verse 2, Paul was “resolved to know nothing except Jesus Christ...” Read Psalm 27:4-8 which gives us a similar, poetic sentiment. Then, consider the following questions:

a. Are you engaged in the life of First Free (church) in a way that leads you and others “seeking the face of God?” If so, what does that look like for you currently? If not, what do you think it could look like to do so?

b. Are you engaged in discipleship in a way that leads you and others towards “seeking the face of God?” If so, what does that look like for you currently? If not, what do you think it could look like to do so?

In verse 2, Paul was “resolved to know nothing except Jesus Christ and him crucified.” On Sunday, Danny challenged us to consider one important aspect of what it means to follow Christ—that is, to live as Christ lived and to die to ourselves in the same way Christ sacrificed himself on our behalf (See Luke 9:23).

What is one thing in your life that you need to give up or give away that you may more fully love God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength (Mark 12:30)? What would it look like to start that process this week?
